

SEE protocol

Saline rinse → Elevate head → Eyelids shut

SEE protocol is something very important and tangible that you can do that supports a successful cornea transplant.

An outdated and harmful practice is to place ice on the eyelids. This can actually damage tissue. A better practice is the use of paper tape, if necessary, to keep the eyelids closed.